FOREIGN FRUIT EXPERTS HERE

Three Countries Represented in Inspection of Adams County Orchards Made on Wednesday. Delighted with our Orchards.

The Adams County fruit belt was inspected on Wednesday by three foreign horticultural experts who are visiting various experimental stations in the state in an effort to secure information regarding the most approved methods of growing apples.

The experts from abroad who visited the Adams County orchards were conducted by Dr. J. P. Stewart of Pennsylvania State College. They were Prof. Gerolamo Molon, of the department of horticulture of the Royal Superior School of Agriculture, of Milan, Italy; Prof. J. W. Crow, of the department of pomology, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ontario, and Neils Eshjerg, superintendent of the Pomological Experiment Station at Eshjerg, Denmark.

In the Tyson orchards the state is conducting special experiments with various fertilizers and there were viewed and their results carefully noted by the distinguished visitors who were thoroughly delighted with all they saw in the local fruit belt and expressed surprise at the high state to which the business of horticulture had been advanced in this county. Several orchards were inspected with a view to seeing the different methods and their success or failure.

The experts came direct from the meeting of the State Horticultural Association at West Chester where there were a number of talks on fruit raising. The effect of various fertilizers, the necessity of knowing the character of the soil in which the trees are planted and all the other things which go to make a success in fruit growing were taken up at the meeting of the association which has a large number of members in Adams County.

It was from this meeting that the foreign experts came to Adams County to see a practical demonstration of intelligent, energetic and skillful fruit growing and that they were delighted was fully manifested in their talk and in the interest shown.

PROGRAM FOR THE INSTITUTE

Superintendent Roth Announces Strong Educators for Annual Teachers Institute in November. Possibly in October Next Year.

County Superintendent H. Milton Roth announces a strong corps of educators for the annual teachers' institute which will be held, as in the past few years, in Brua Chapel, on the week in November immediately preceding Thanksgiving Day. This year this will be the week of November 18.

Among the instructors will be Dr. O. C. Corson, of Columbus, Ohio, an ex-commissioner of education in that state and at present editor of the Ohio Educational Monthly. He is a specialist on School Management and School Methods and recognized as a very able institute instructor.

Another of the lecturers for the week will be Dr. S. D. Fees, president of Antioch College, Ohio. His home is in Yellow Springs, that state, and he is well known here where he has appeared in other years. He is regarded as especially strong in the departments of Civics and History.

Prof. Robert J. McDowell, of Pittsburgh, who led the singing last year, will again have charge of the music at this year's sessions. L. D. Dennis, the state agricultural expert who was prevented by illness from attending the summer meeting, will be asked to attend the institute and complete arrangements for the teaching of agriculture in the schools of the county this coming year. Several other prominent men will be engaged for the day lectures and the announcement of the evening entertainments will be made in a few days.

County Superintendent Roth has been making an effort to get the various school boards of the county to close their schools on Christmas week. In every known instance they have agreed and, if the scheme proves a success this year, it is likely that the institute of 1913 will be moved much earlier, possibly to the last week in October. One reason it has been held the latter part of November in the past was to provide a sort of recess for the teachers, but a week off at Christmas would meet that need.

REFORMED 5, COLLEGE 1

College Lutheran Team Loses its Last Game to Leaders and is now Safe in Last Place. Reformed Near Pennant.

By defeating the College team Wednesday evening the Reformed got one point nearer to this year's Sunday School championship while they stowed safely away in last place the College nine which has now finished out its schedule with a total of two games won and eight lost. Score Reformed 5, College 1. Collection $5.23.

College went out in order in the first. Apper got a hit in the Reformed's half but was caught stealing second. In College's half of the second Skelly made a two base hit, stole third and scored when Woodward and Kendeblatt collided in trying to catch Croese's fly. Woodward made a difficult running catch during the inning that brought forth applause.

The Reformed scored two in the second. George Kendeblatt got a hit which Woodward duplicated. Kendeblatt was forced out at third by Bringman who executed a double steal with Woodward. Heavy drew a pass filling the bases and Winnington's hit scored two. David Kendeblatt got to first when his third strike was dropped and the bases were again full but the inning ended when Rupp flied out to Schaeffer.

Several passes, two passed balls and a fly to the outfield yielded two more runs for the Reformed in the third and they scored another in the fourth on Heagy's hit and stolen bases. College got a man on third in their half of the third inning when Schaeffer took second on his fly to right, dropped when Winnington and Kendeblatt collided, and then stole third but the other batters failed to score him.

SQUASH PIE THREATENED

State Zoologist H. A. Surace, who has been urging farmers to take steps to get rid of the white grub worms, which are making trouble in many parts of the state, says that he has reports that the squash vine borer is threatening the crop of the vegetable which is the basis of delicious squash pie.

The borer is a worm of a particularly annoying type and one of the most active of the many pests which have been abroad in the land this year.

The borer feeds within the vine of the squash and even attacks pumpkin vine, so that not only the squash but the "yaller punkin," so much in demand for Halloween, is threatened. It is the larva of the clear winged white moth, which will begin to lay its eggs soon. A good remedy to stop the borer is to cover the vines with earth. It dislikes to bore in the earth and will flee from nitrate of soda.

TAFT RECALLS TROOP ORDER

Says Marines Will Guard Americans in Nicaragua.

WAS ISSUED FROM TRAIN

Reports of Burning Soldiers and Danger of Americans Lead to Call on Army to Restore Peace.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 29.—President Taft rescinded his order directing the immediate dispatch from Panama to Nicaragua of the Tenth Infantry.

From his private car in the Rochester yards the president wired to the acting secretary of war to recall the order. A sufficient force of marines, the president said, would be in Managua, the Nicaraguan capital, and Corinto, its principal seaport, early next week, to insure the safety of American lives and property.

On advice, through the state department, of conditions, said to be so serious as to justify not being made public in Washington, President Taft, from Beverly, personally directed the immediate movement of the Tenth United States Infantry, now on the Panama canal zone, to Nicaragua to guard American lives and property.

United States marines, now being rushed south on the transport Prairie, by way of Colon, and the cruiser California cannot reach Nicaragua for possibly a week. Dispatches pictured the situation as being so acute that an immediate movement of a large force of troops was imperative.

Allegations of conditions bordering on barbarism, and acts even worse than those which took the troops of the united powers into China to quell the Boxer rebellion have been received at the state department within the last twenty-four hours.

The deliberate murder of two Americans, Dodd and Phillips, after they had been wounded and were helpless, following the massacre at Leon on Aug. 19, focussed attention on the previous reports of burning of soldiers, starvation of political prisoners held in dungeons and other alleged acts of cruelty.

Generals Mena and Zeledon have surrounded Managua and the capital is in imminent danger of falling into their hands. The 450 marines and sailors there, although well armed, are poorly provisioned, and it is feared the rebels might starve them into submission before the 750 marines, now on the way from Philadelphia, could come to their assistance.

The latest reports made plain that immediate protection for Americans was necessary and that it probably would not be safe to wait for the arrival of marines now on the way.

General Francisco Altschul, the representative of the revolutionist junta in Washington, denies the charges of barbarity brought against troops fighting the Nicaraguan government. He alleges that the burning of the bodies of soldiers was necessary to proper sanitation and that it applied alike to the dead of both sides.

TAFT DROPS POLITICS

Says People Must Decide Without Hearing Him.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 29.—President Taft, in a speech from the rear platform of his private car here, declared that he did not intend to take any further part in active politics. The president said:

"I am not here to make a political speech. I have given that up. I believe that there are some politics going on, but I am not going to take part in them. So far as I am concerned, you will have to make up your minds without hearing me further."

"I am on a trip to my own state to celebrate one hundred years of political life, and I have something to say to the people of Ohio on that subject, but not on politics."

President Taft, accompanied by his military aide, Major Rhoads, left Boston to attend the centennial celebration at Columbus, O.

NEGRO RESIGNS FROM BAR ASSOCIATION

Commended by Southerner For "Dignified Attitude."

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 29.—The race question again came up before the American Bar association, now in session here.

William R. Morris, of Minneapolis, one of the three negro lawyers who had been unseated by the executive committee and then reinstated by the association, sent a telegram announcing his resignation, saying it was based on "an entirely unselfish consideration of the best interests of the association."

On motion of Joseph Merrill, of Thomasville, Ga., the resignation was accepted. "I am opposed to the admission of negroes to this organization," said Mr. Merrill, "but I want to express our appreciation of his dignified attitude in resigning."

Mr. Morris was one of three negro members who had been unseated by the executive committee because of their race. One of the others, William H. Lewis, an assistant United States attorney general, still retains his membership.

Lewis May Resign.

Washington, Aug. 29.—William H. Lewis, the colored assistant attorney general, said that he may resign his membership in the American Bar association after conferring with Attorney General Wickersham. The latter championed his cause at the convention of the association in Milwaukee. Lewis said: "I have been vindicated through Mr. Wickersham's efforts. Personally, I think I am wasting $5 a year in the membership fee."

BRITAIN PROTESTS AGAINST CANAL

Will Ask Arbitration Unless Agreement is Reached.

SO NOTIFIES WASHINGTON

Stand Taken by England on Granting Free Passage to American Ships.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Notice that Great Britain will ask for arbitration on the controversy with the United States over legislation just passed by congress, granting free passage through the Panama canal to American ships was served on the state department in a note received from the British embassy.

The note, which was signed by A. Mitchell Innes, charge d'affaires of the legation, was very brief and like the first informal protest against the then pending canal legislation of July 8, gave promise that a further communication from Great Britain is to follow. It is stated that the British government, in view of the enactment by congress of the legislative provisions for the canal tolls, against which protest was made on July 8, again calls the attention of the United States government to the views of Great Britain upon the subject with reference to the alleged violation of the Hay Pauncefote treaty.

It is stated that the British government will make a careful study of the provisions of the bill and the reasoning advanced by President Taft in support of the action of the United States in favor of American ships. If an irreconcilable divergence of view of the treaty and the bill continues to exist after such study, it is declared that arbitration of the question will be expected.

No reply beyond an acknowledgment of the receipt of this note will be sent Mr. Innes by the state department. The promise contained in the note of a further communication is regarded as making any action by the state department unnecessary at this time.

Consequently the state department and the president are to have a breathing spell before being confronted with a demand for arbitration of the controversy over the interpretation of the treaty. Upon the answer which is made to Great Britain it is expected that the future arbitration policy of the United States will depend. It has already been predicted by senators that if the United States should refuse to arbitrate that it would mean the death of the nation's arbitration treaties with the powers. The one with Great Britain expires in June next and the other with France in March of next year. These treaties could not well be renewed by either France or Great Britain in self respect if the United States declined to arbitrate the canal question.

WILLIS PITCHES FINE GAME MODERN GAME AS A SCIENCE

Old-Time National League Star Lets Port Deposit Team Down Without One Safe Hit.

Vic Willis, for 13 years one of the star pitchers in the National league, showed his old-time form when, pitching for the Tri-County league, he let Ancient Fans Amazed at Present Day Batting and Pitching—Sport is in its Infancy.

Baseball today is a science, and we ancient fans stand amazed at the present day pitching and batting work, at the phenomenally clever base running and the hold the national game has gained on the public fancy. We are growing old with the game, but the latter is always improving while we are getting near sighted and stiff in the joints, says a writer in Leslie's. The glories of the past are being dimmed by the accomplishments of the present, and these "infant" fans will live to see things done that we cannot even imagine. That's why I envy them. We used to think we had seen everything that was in the game. Now we realize that the sport is still in its childhood. The Cobbs, the Marquards and the Johnsons are teaching us this, and double clinching the fact.

BALL AND BAT NOTES

Fisher, the new Brooklyn shortstop, looks very promising.

Pongo Cantillon is claiming another pennant for the Millers.

Umpire Bill Dineen is out with the theory that Ty Cobb isn't human.

Barney Dreyfuss of the Pirates is after Red Corridon of the Kansas City team.

George Gibson seems to be in a class with Jimmy Archer in guarding the sacks.

Eddie Mensor, the outfielder of the Pirates team, is a prize fighter in the off season.

Russell Ford and Ed Walsh, both spitballers, have allowed more hits than any other pitchers in the American league.

Apparently Manager Callahan is coming to believe that youngsters are much needed.

Charley Doolin springs a new one in asking that a disinfectant be used on the spitball.

Cincinnati has released Thomson, the Washington-Lee university pitcher, to Toronto.

As usual in a defeat, the opposing pitcher didn't seem to have anything except a glove and a prayer.

The success of the Senators is said to be due to the ability of the pitchers to hold the runners on first.

"Ducky" Holmes, manager of the Grand Rapids team, is boasting that he developed both Rube Marquard and Dixie Walker.

The Cleveland club is scouring the remotest corners of the country for anything and everything that looks like a player.

Columbia of the South Atlantic league has traded Phil Hinton to Spartanburg of the Carolina association for Catcher Menefee.

Port Deposit down without a hit and then lost the game, 1 to 0. Two errors gave Port Deposit the winning run in the ninth inning.

Schulte's Awakening.

Frank Schulte of the Cubs has recovered his batting eye. Schulte was the batting sensation of last year, when he made 21 home runs. Now Heinie Zimmerman is the candy kid with the stick. Schulte will undoubtedly be heard from this time forward.

Chance to Undergo Operation.

Frank Chance will be operated on at the end of the present season. The doctors believe they can relieve his excessive nervousness with an operation, and Chance has consented to the attempt.

MISS ELEANOR SEARS.

Society Athletic Girl May Wed Harold Vanderbilt.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

MAY WED A VANDERBILT

Miss Eleanor Sears Said to Be Engaged to Harold.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 29. — "Hello, Mike!" is the way in which Miss Eleanor Sears, of Boston, now greets Harold Vanderbilt, rumors of her engagement to whom have been unusually persistent during the present summer.

Their many friends here were much amused at the exchange of greetings between the couple when they came to meet at the Casino.

"Hello, Mike!" cried Miss Sears, cordially, as she approached young Vanderbilt.

"Hello, Mike Sports!" retorted Mr. Vanderbilt, quite unruffled, upon which the couple laughed heartily, and in due time a vigorous handshake, suggestive of good fellowship far more than of sentiment.

There is little doubt among the summer contingent in Newport that the couple will announce their engagement before many weeks.

M'CLEARY ADMITS MURDER, IS REPORT

Said to Have Confessed Slaying Woman.

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 29.—Norman B. McCleary, the young athlete, who is held here on the charge of murdering Mrs. Nannie B. Henry in her home on Thursday, Aug. 15, is reported to have made a voluntary confession in writing.

State's Attorney S. M. Wolfinger is said to have in his possession the statement alleged to have been made by McCleary in the presence of six witnesses that he killed the woman by choking her to death.

The confession is understood to have been made in the jail soon after McCleary was brought from Washington, where he was arrested at the instance of Miss Lupa Henry, his sweet heart, and a daughter of the murdered woman.

On the night of Aug. 15 he went to the Henry home, and was told by Mrs. Henry that his visits to her daughter were unwelcome. He demanded to know where the girl, who had left the city, had gone, and Mrs. Henry refused to tell him.

McCleary left in a rage and later returned to the house, entering the rear and creeping upstairs, entered Mrs. Henry's room. The woman again refused to give him the girl's address; harsh words followed, and McCleary it is said, grabbed Mrs. Henry by the throat and choked her, throwing her upon the bed. He searched for a letter from the girl, but failed to find it.

The following night he is said to have returned to the house and took money from Mrs. Henry's stocking. On Saturday night McCleary decided to make another search of the house and took the money that remained and is alleged to have found the letter containing the daughter's address in Washington. The next day McCleary left for that city.

T. R. WOULD OUST PENROSE

Declares Senator's Own Words Convict Him.

HE SEES VICTORY HERE

Roosevelt Is Hopeful of Carrying Pennsylvania—Calls Wilson His Real Foe.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Comparing the testimony before the senate committee which is investigating campaign expenditures with the conditions disclosed in New York by the police investigation, Colonel Roosevelt declared that Senator Penrose, on his own testimony, should be expelled from the senate.

Colonel Roosevelt had taken this position, he said, in the letter to Senator Clapp, chairman of the senate committee, which he is preparing. Colonel Roosevelt said:

"On his own testimony I would have Senator Penrose thrown out of the senate."

The colonel made this statement after he had read from what purported to be an extract from Mr. Penrose's testimony before the senate committee to the effect that he had advised John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil company, to make a second contribution to the 1904 campaign, lest the company encounter difficulties in certain quarters.

Colonel Roosevelt said that in his opinion this was an offer of protection from the government in return for a contribution, and that it did not differ essentially from the sale of police protection in New York.

The real fight in the coming campaign, Colonel Roosevelt declared, would be between himself and Governor Wilson. He expressed the belief that President Taft's supporters did not expect to elect him. The colonel made this statement in commenting upon the situation in Pennsylvania after he had read a report that supporters of his on the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania as candidates for electors would be withdrawn on condition that no state ticket be placed in the field by Senator Penrose. The colonel continued:

"I know nothing about the state ticket matter in Pennsylvania, but it will be recalled that the Progressive convention at Chicago I made public the statement that I had insisted that in Pennsylvania under the peculiarities of the Pennsylvania election laws, it was necessary that the Roosevelt electors should go on a separate ticket—the Washington ticket."

"We will beat Mr. Taft in Pennsylvania a good deal worse than we beat him in the primary, and personally I am convinced that we shall carry Pennsylvania without difficulty for the Progressive ticket. There, as every where else, the fight is between Mr. Wilson and myself. The Taft supporters, as shown by the action of Messrs. Penrose and Archbold, have not the slightest idea of electing Mr. Taft. Moreover, they care little about it."

Referring again to his controversy with Senator Penrose, Colonel Roosevelt said he was delighted at the turn taken by the investigation because it was furnishing capital campaign material for him, such as the Lorimer affair gave him in the spring campaign. He continued:

"Lorimer is done for now, and I am indebted to Senator Penrose for filling the war chest with ammunition again."

T. R. WINS IN KANSAS

Refuse to Put Roosevelt Electors Off Republican Ticket.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 29.—By a vote of 80 to 62, the Republican party council defeated a resolution to force the Roosevelt presidential electors upon an independent ticket.

The result means that the Roosevelt electors will appear upon the Republican ballot unless the supreme court of the United States rules against them.

The defeated resolution requested that the Roosevelt electors get off the Republican ticket and get into the independent column. The Taft forces insisted that the Roosevelt men should leave the ticket.

The action of the Republican council, which is made up of the leading Republicans of the state, followed the adoption of a resolution by the state committee asking the Roosevelt electors to resign. The action of the committee was merely a suggestion to the council.

Charles Sessions, secretary of state told the council he believed the law provided he should put Taft's name at the head of the Republican ticket. The Roosevelt leaders declared that mandamus action would be brought to compel him to leave Taft's name off.

Emerson Seeks to End $28,800 Alimony. Baltimore, Md., Aug. 29.—Captain Isaac E. Emerson, millionaire drug manufacturer, whose divorced wife married C. Hazeltine Bashor a few days ago, filed a petition in court requiring Mrs. Bashor to show cause why the $28,800 a year alimony at lowered by the court in the decree of divorce should not be discontinued. Captain Emerson contends that since the defendant has remarried the responsibility for her support should fall on her present husband.

LOST $3000 IN BOGUS DEED SWINDLE

Reading Man Gives That Sum For Mortgage.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 29.—A unique swindle, through which G. H. Delp, a wealthy wholesale grocer, was swindled out of $3000, was discovered through a fake deed filed with Recorder of Deeds Zellers, upon which a mortgage was given for the money.

It was worked by a man giving his name as Joseph M. Miller, about sixty years old, and for whom the authorities are making a diligent search. The deed set forth that Jacob B. Dreihelbis and wife had agreed to sell to Miller a farm of 131 acres at Virginsville for $11,000. It was signed by Dreihelbis and wife and J. H. Marx and J. W. Rhode, all of which signatures have been pronounced forgeries.

The transaction would not have come to light for six months had it not been that the swindler forgot to pay the real estate firm its fee in raising the mortgage money of $3000, which was issued by Mr. Delp at 5 1/2 per cent. Miller, the swindler, received his check for $3000 and has not been seen since.

Postmaster General Hitchcock Approves New Design.

Washington, Aug. 29.—A new two-cent stamp, in commemoration of the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915, was approved by Postmaster General Hitchcock.

It is about an inch wide and an inch and a quarter long. It bears an engraving representing the Gatun locks of the Panama canal, showing a steamship emerging from the northern lock and another vessel being raised in the southern one. In the middle distance is a group of tall palm trees.

Across the top are the words "U. S. Postage," and directly below these the line "San Francisco, 1915." In each lower corner is an olive branch, typifying peace.

Man 108 Weds Woman of 73.

Griffin and his bride nominally have been married for more than fifty years, having been slaves on the same plantation in North Carolina before the war.

HANDLE BRICKS WITH PALLET

General Appearance of Implement is That of Baggage Truck—Invented by Kansas Man.

A pallet designed for a different way to handle bricks than has been in vogue in the past has been patented by a Kansas man. The general appearance of the affair is that of a baggage truck, but the metal edge that runs along the lower end is so constructed that a row of bricks can be arranged on it in a tilted line, resting on their edges and end to end. The stack of bricks then can be piled up on top of these, but at right angles to them, the bottom row supporting the whole stack. By moving the whole stack bodily the bottom layer of bricks is turned over so that they rest on their flat sides and support the rest in that way, at the same time projecting far enough outside to hold another row. Piled up in this fashion, the bricks can be trundled to any part of a building operation and dumped there.

PROGRESS IN FUEL BRIQUETS

This Country Still Lags Far Behind Some of European Countries, Especially Germany.

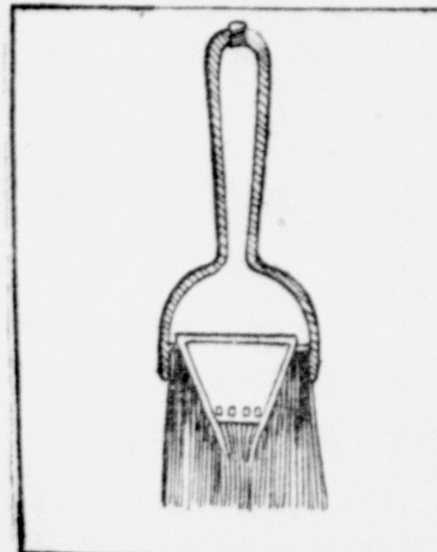

Considerable progress has been made in the development of fuel briquetting in the United States during the last two years, according to Edward W. Parker, in a statement just made public by the United States geological survey. This country, however, still lags far behind some of the European countries, particularly Germany, in this line of industrial activity. In 1909 the production of fuel briquets in the United States was 139,661 short tons, valued at $652,897, an increase of nearly 55 per cent. in quantity over 1908. In 1911 the production amounted to 212,443 short tons, valued at $769,721, the increase in two years amounting to 72,782 short tons or 52 per cent. in quantity, and to $117,024, or 70 per cent. in value.

In Mr. Parker's opinion, more attention should be given to this industry, as on it depends to a considerable degree the utilization of some grades of fuel which are now wasted or sold at less than the actual cost of production. The reprehensible practice of shooting bituminous coal "off the solid"—a practice notably prevalent in the fields of non-coking coal in the Mississippi valley—produces an inordinate proportion of slack, which might be made into briquets.

WORKED LIKE FOUNTAIN PEN

No Time Lost With New Paint Brush by Dipping It Into Can—Does Its Work Evenly.

Most ingenious is the fountain paint brush patented by a New York man. This device will not only save time because it does not have to be continually dipped into a can of paint, but it will do its work much more evenly, as it will always have the same amount of paint on its bristles. It is very simple, like most really ingenious things. The head and handle of the brush, instead of being a solid piece of wood, is hollow metal, forming ing a paint reservoir. A number of perforations lead to the bristles and through these the paint continually leaks, keeping the brush always filled with paint, and the same amount of paint. Or the brush can be made with a wooden handle and with a removable reservoir setting into the middle of it.

Fountain Paint Brush.

Let nine milkings pass before using a fresh cow's milk.

Cabbage is one of the very best vegetables to feed to poultry.

High quality of cream can be produced from clean, pure milk.

Better use is made of ground than of whole grain by the dairy cows.

Do not allow the stall where the cow must stand or lie to get filthy.

CAUGHT NAPPING.

Mrs. Bacon—What did you think of that hat Miss Styles wore to church, this morning?

Mr. Bacon—I didn't notice Miss Styles' hat.

"It's funny you didn't see it. She sat directly in front of you."

"Well, suppose she did. Do you suppose I go to church to look at women's hats?"

"Well, dear, it's the same hat Miss Styles wore to the theater night before last, and which you claimed obstructed your view of the stage."

Setting Her Right.

"You are familiar, I presume, with Johnson's 'Rasselas,'" observed the Boston girl.

"You must have got him mixed with Frank Getch," said the St. Louis young man; "Johnson's a prize fighter."

Then silence, like a cataplasm, descended to ameliorate the impact of the atmospheric concussion.

Facilitator.

Impatient Guest—Walter, I must catch a train and I'm in a hurry—what are the chances of my getting served at once?

Walter—About one to one, sir.

Impatient Guest—I got you—one dollar to one waiter. Here you are! Now slide!—Puck.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?

She (after the engagement has been announced)—I guess if a pretty girl came along you wouldn't care for me any more.

He—How foolish! What do I care for good looks? You suit me all right.

Natural History.

Who's ever by an ostrich kicked Will find his person easily nickered And well may lift up thankful tones, If he can count no broken bones.

No Chance for Him.

"There!" said the ambitious young man when he had finished his great epic, "that's done. Now all that is necessary is to find a publisher and cause the public to become interested in me. Confound it! I have no friend whose wife would be willing to cause a commotion by eloping with me."

Always Ahead of Him.

Miss Cute (an amateur palmist)—This line in your hand, Mr. Dubb, indicates that you have a brilliant future before you.

Dubb—Is that so?

Miss Cute—Yes; but this other line indicates that you are too slow ever to overtake it.

A Solemn Prediction.

"Well, what is your opinion of the political outlook now?"

"My opinion of it is that there is going to be a lot of useless talk before anybody is elected, and that the man who is chosen will not succeed in satisfying everybody who votes for him."

Their Redeeming Feature.

Mme. Bashieu—I think Ruskin's titles for his books are so happy.

Mme. Bashieu—When you know the title of one of his books, you always know one of the things it isn't about.—American Reformer.

THAT'S ALL.

Visitor—Any hunting about here?

Native—Sure.

Visitor—What kind of game?

Native—No game. Just hunting.

Unusual.

Innocent bystander—Believe it or not; Policeman starts shooting, I. H. wasn't shot.

Economical Care.

The young wife had given her husband a dance. "You've improved wonderfully, Jack," she said as they sat down. "Don't you remember how you used to tear my dress?"

"Yes," he replied, "I wasn't buying them then."

The silo makes feed cheap.

Keep only thoroughbred stock.

A dibble is a handy garden tool.

Sort eggs according to size and color.

Curry the filth from the cow's coat before milking.

Late cabbage is a good crop to follow early potatoes.

NOTES From MEADOWBROOK FARM

Peas enrich the soil.

Soy beans make good silage.

More dairy products are wanted.

Give the cow nothing but fresh water.

Cleanliness is one of the essentials in poultry work.

Are your neighbor's crops looking better than your own?

Move the farm closer to town by means of better roads.

While charcoal is not a food, fowls gain flesh faster during its use.

Progress in dairying is greatest where there is the most interest.

The only honest way to water milk is to give pure water to the cows.

No part of the farm work is more universally neglected than the garden.

Throw your ashes into the poultry-house and watch them enjoy themselves.

Trouble with weeds has caused more alfalfa failures than any other one thing.

The cow that is a large producer of milk must be a large consumer of feed and water.

For grinding purposes alfalfa hay should be cut when the very first blossoms appear.

When the horse is in normal condition he should have all of the water he will drink.

It is possible to milk in comfort if the stables are kept in a clean, sanitary and light condition.

To the good dairyman it is important that the exact age of every fowl on his premises is known.

A profitable farm garden is a continuous source of satisfaction from early spring until frost comes.

Alfalfa should be raked and cocked up the afternoon of the day of cutting where conditions are favorable.

Indiana produced $26,000,000 worth of poultry and eggs in 1909, year of the last census—figures just out.

In the rush, don't forget those odd corners that are growing up to weeds and seedling the farm to these pests.

Where milk is "set" in pans it is a good sanitary precaution to cover the pans with clean paper after cooling.

A good farm paper is the very best machine on the farm, and will be the means of making the most money for you.

The three essentials for a successful dairy cow are vigor, capacity for food and well-developed organs for milk production.

Corn silage is no less valuable for carrying stockers and feeders through the winter months than for fattening and finishing beefs.

The most humane method of dehorning a cow is to do the work with a little caustic potash when the horns are just starting on the calf.

A record cow is not only a good ad for the breeder, but it is a boost for the breed as well, to say nothing of the country which produced it.

When swine are bred for mere fancy points and when constitution and substance are lost sight of they cease to be profitable assimilators of food.

Good butter is as good as gold anywhere in the summer time, and a farm that turns out a good supply of the A-1 kind every week is a gold mine.

J. A. Ferguson, Missouri station, is urging farmers to set out forest nurseries in a portion of their vegetable gardens—later to plant waste places with the seedlings.

Chickens need fresh water several times during the day. They need feeding regularly four or five times a day, just a little at a time. If you give them a lot of feed, they do not know when to stop eating, and eat too much.

Never feed lettuce to the chicks unless your garden is fenced in or you are prepared to give them all they want. The taste acquired may lead them to the garden to help themselves. It is a first rate food for them.

The successful swine grower studies the form and the general make-up of the ideal hog, thus getting a clear conception of what constitutes healthy, strong, money-making porkers, and then select and breed to that ideal.

Spray twice for peaches—first when the husk is about half off, with arsenate of lead alone or arsenate of lead and self-boiled lime-sulphur solution, and the second spraying about 10 days later with the self-boiled lime-sulphur and arsenate of lead.
